ABOUT US

WHO WE ARE !

MadTrek Adventures is an Indian subcontinent adventure tour outfitter. Located in amidst of Great Himalayan Range operates by an avid mountaineer, a mountain climber "Kailash Bhatia" and a nature lover, an adviser "Abhinav Verma" who operates all kind of ground operations. Both dedicated their entire life to explore the remote locations of the Great Himalayas through hiking and trekking.

WHY MADTREK ?

We prefer to do things differently keeping in mind safety, comfort & pleasure of our trekkers at highest priority. We strongly believe in preserving the brilliance we proudly call our home & do not welcome anyone who litters around & doesn't respect the notion of loving nature so it can love you back. We make the travelers see this world with our own eyes & leave them spellbound with the magnificence of nature which the outside world considers to be wild. So pack your bags & let us take you to a majestically incredible experience which will introduce you to a new you..

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 4 - Trek Sheagoru To Chattru, Drive Chandratal & Back To Chattru

Today's trek is the easiest, with a descent all the way to Chattru (10,898 Feet). It takes approximately 3 hours to reach the Chattru campsite.

Take a break, have lunch, and relax at the Chattru campsite.

If the weather permits, the next destination is Chandratal lake (14,074 Feet). The drive from Chattru to Chandratal takes about 4-5 hours. Make a stop at Batal to take photos at the famous Chacha Chachi ka Dhaba.

Reach Chandratal and marvel at the beauty of this high-altitude alpine lake. Chandratal, also known as Moon Lake, is located on the Samudra Tapu plateau in the Spiti valley.

Situated at an altitude of 4,290 meters above sea level, the lake is renowned for its clear blue waters, stunning views of CB-12 peak, and pristine environment.

After exploring Chandratal, return to Chattru following the same route. Dinner and overnight stay in tents.

THINGS TO CARRY

- Backpack: A comfortable and sturdy backpack is essential to carry all your gear and supplies during the trek.
- Hydration: A hydration system, such as a hydration bladder or water bottles, is important to stay hydrated during the trek.
- Food and snacks: Pack enough food and snacks to last for the duration of the trek, including energy bars, dried fruits, and nuts.
- Lighting equipment: A headlamp or flashlight is indispensable for moving around in low light conditions.
- Emergency medical supplies: It is important to pack a basic first-aid kit containing essential items like pain relievers, bandages, and antiseptic ointments for any unexpected medical emergencies during the trek.
- Clothing: Pack warm and waterproof clothing, including thermal innerwear, a fleece jacket, a waterproof jacket, and a hat and gloves.
- Identification: Don't forget to bring a government-issued identification card such as a aadhar card or driver's license, as it may be required for verification purposes during the trek.
- Footwear: Good quality trekking shoes are a must, as the trek involves a lot of walking over uneven terrain and extra pair of socks.
